

December Musician of the Month

You!

This month you are all our Musicians of the Month.

You have worked so hard in preparation for your Christmas performances.

Your performance skills have included singing tunefully and in time with others, playing instruments, with attention to detail, and performing with confidence.

I wonder whether any of you will become professional musicians in the future?

