

In DT, we made teddies that were suitable for Victorian children. We first designed our teddy, ensuring that we met a design brief.

Once we had finished our design, we cut out the material, learned blanket stitch to sew our pattern together and attach eyes, a nose and buttons, and then we stuffed our teddy. Here are a few examples of our amazing work:

