

Today on the 2/11/21 we launched our Fire Fire topic.

We made paper houses to represent the wooden ones they would have had in London in 1666.

We put them close together and lit them on fire to show how easily the fire spread.

We then spaced the houses out to show how London was rebuilt after with wider streets so the fire could not spread as easily.

