

4R absolutely loved our visit to The Hive. When we arrived at the Hive, we were greeted by some of the librarians that work there. We got to explore a variety of books, create our own book cover with a blurb and go fact hunting in non-fiction books. It was a fantastic day and many of the children are looking forward to showing their grown-ups around the Hive on their next visit.

